The conference is organized to provide an open opportunity for faculty, postdocs and graduate students in numerical analysis, scientific computing and related application areas, mainly from the Midwest region, to get together, exchange ideas, and promote collaborations. The conference will include 25-minute contributed talks in two to three parallel sessions. There is no conference registration fee. However, advance registration is required. Partial support for graduate students and postdocs is available if they present a contributed talk accepted by the conference.

Acknowledgements:

We gratefully acknowledge the financial support of the Institute for Mathematics and Its Applications \(IMA\) in Minneapolis, and the Department of Applied and Computational Mathematics and Statistics \(ACMS\), Center for the Study of Biocomplexity, and College of Science at the University of Notre Dame. The conference is sponsored in part by the Nieuwland Lectureship Series.

This conference is supported in part by the Institute for Mathematics and Its Applications (IMA) through its Participating Institution (PI) Program. PI members may use IMA/PI funds to support personnel's travel to this conference.

The contributed talk abstract submission deadline was May 1, 2012.
